

My 2nd Skin

Lunascap

Here come the face
A different face
Though without the shame
I always said
Something was wrong
A long way down
Beneath the chrome

Leaving my old skin
Breaking the fence
To transform
A new dimension
Save and sound and free for all

Here's another face
One without a trace
Another look to change me
Never wanna hear
All the lies again
I'll try my second skin

Under my skin
Memories hide
All the love within
The thunder in here
Striking without
It's lightning gear

It's heating the cold skin
Revealing something unknown

A new dimension
Save and sound
And free for all

Here's another face
One without a trace
Another look to change me
Never wanna hear
All the lies again
I'll try my second skin

Covers all there changes inside
My second skin
Another shield will make me alive

Here's another face
One without a trace
Another look
To change me
Here's another face
One without a trace
Another look
To change me

Never wanna hear
All the lies again

I'll try my second skin

Here's another face
To make me alive
There's no other rage
To bear all the lies
Here's another face
To make me alive
There's no other rage
To bear all the lies

My second skin
