Surrender

Lunascape

the daylight,
cried for a cure,
I will wake over you, and I won't be out of control out of sight and into your soul

Starlight, magical view, lights of blue will follow you, out of night, but nobody knows, where did you ever go

shoot an arrow into the twilight
but shadows never fall,

release me from your mind
for i won't surrender
and I will be free now
if you will surrender
surrender

one life, two for the show, now you see me, now you don't, hide and seek from nine to five, will you take another life?

and I will be free now
surrender

don't chase me forever, cause I won't surrender
release me from your mind,
release me from your mind,
surrender
surrender
surrender
surrender
