Worlds Unleashed

Once in a lifetime you'll reach a point Where being a slave is no longer enough Now the time has come to break your chains Speak your mind, go straight ahead

Chorus: Feel free to speak, don't deny yourself The rights you have got See that the life you've been leading is wrong Unleash these words

Career and politeness are like a cage For a long time you've thrown away your life Take whatever you need, don't lose your faith Terminate the times of diplomacy

Chorus

Unleash these words and live
