

She used to think for everyone except herself
Asked anyone if they agreed with her

Was to unsure to make decisions
Because she didn't want to let somebody down
But now its time to set course for self-determination

Go on, Go on
Just listen to your feelings
Go on, Go on
It is what it means to be living
Go on, Go on
If you wait for too long
Because you're scared to do wrong
Somebody else will come take your place
And you will end up stuck in a crossing

She used to go where they wanted her to go
She used to think what they wanted her to think

Content to see satisfaciton of another
She forgot about her plans
But now it's time to head for a self-realization

Go on, Go on
Just listen to your feelings
Go on, Go on
It is what it means to be living
Go on, Go on
If you wait for too long
Because you're scared to do wrong
Somebody else will come and take your place
And you will end up stuck in the crossing

In all probabiltly
Need a bit of vanity
Little girl -- look for yourself -- finally
You gotta stop sacrifice yourself
Saving everybody else
And later you're in agony
They're all so selfish
Sad but true:
You need to learn this too

Go on, Go on
Just listen to your feelings
Go on, Go on
It is what it means to be living
Go on, Go on
If you wait for too long
Because you're scared to do wrong
Somebody else will come and take your place
And you will end up stuck in the crossing
