

Me-Time

Lunik

packing my bags and off I go already feeling sand under my toes it's not the future nor the past it's now or never
me! here! today!
at last
I'm singing a lullaby to this mess no more sad songs! I press...
...the pause button and here we go...

now it is 'me-time'
just for me
if you want something from me stand in line and in the meantime I'm gonna have
a barrel of laughs
I should have known better you're not the type to rely on well I don't need you I can also go out on my own it's now or never and lots of pleasure you know

now it is 'me-time'
just for me
if you want something from me stand in line
and in the meantime
I'm gonna have
a barrel of laughs

I'm feeling my own private sun rising that's why I know that our sunset will soon be forgotten

now it is 'me time'
just for me
if you want something from me stand in line
I am having some free time I'm on a ride
summersaults inside
