

Try

Lunik

you want me to be happy so happy I am I sing a song and you'll be amazed and never miss it again the same time it's a game and I'll win because you don't see that I'm playing with you you think that being pensive and melancholic strange it doesn't fit with all those others who love to imitate each other and sing of superficial happiness, lies for you to understand

just once I wanna try
to lie
'n' I promise won't do it again
so here is my song for you
just once I wanna try

it needs a take off to fly to the stars
to superficial paradise so I do a take off
a take-off
