

Everything Gonna Be Alright

Luther Allison

I say, everything gonna be alright, what I say
I say, everything gonna be alright
I wanna love you babe, can't wait till tomorrow night
Come on baby, I wanna will my love to you
Wake up darling, I wanna will my love to you
Think about your furture, forget about who you use to be

Hey babe, it's a low down dirty shame
Baby, it's a low down dirty shame
Come on to me mama, I wanna be your loving man
Hey babe, can we make everything alright
Baby I'm gonna make everything alright
Come on now, everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything, everything
Every, every, every, every, everything, everything
Everything, everyting, ever mother thing
Is gonna be alright
