Put Your Money Where Your Mouth Is

Oh, you're acting like you got the power
To make a blind man see the light
I know, yes, I know, baby
That nothing's gonna be right
One thing I got to say, one thing I got to do
I know, yes, I know, girl
I'm all done lovin' you, oh, yeah
You're driving me out of my mind
Oh, no, baby
Your lips are working overtime

You're acting like you got the power
To make a preacher lay the Good Book down
I know, yes, I know
Get your feet back on the ground
One thing I got to say, one thing I got to do
I know, yes, I know
I'm all done loving you, oh, yeah
You're driving me out of my mind
Oh, no, baby
Your lips are working overtime

You're acting like you've got the power
Believing you can raise the dead
I know, you know I know
You got some crazy dreams in your head
One thing I got to say, one thing I got to do
I know, you know I know
I'm all done loving you, oh, yeah
You're driving me out of my mind
Oh, no, baby
Your lips are working overtime

Baby, all your talk is cheap
Always playing me for a fool
I know, yes, I know
You know that just ain't cool
So go ahead pack up and leave
You know I know the score
I know, yes, I know
That you're never coming back no more
