

Everything

Lucretia McNeal

Everything you say (say)
And everything you do (do)
I wanna show you how I feel
Baby this is real
And I never wanna lose you my love
Each time that you are in my arms
Far away from harm
The more I know ya'; the more I like
So every step I take, and every move I make
Is to be closer to you
'Cause you are the man of my dreams
Strange as it seems
But I found ya' now I won't let go
Refrain:

Everything you say and everything you do
Is making me fall deeper in love with you
Everything you give I can't believe it's true
I'm really falling deeper in love with you
The hours we spend together
You know I treasure
Everyday like it was our last
I hope that luck will stand by us
Most of the time 'cause
We need as much as we can get
So every step I take, and every move I make
Is to be closer to you
'Cause you are the man of my dreams
Strange as it seems
But I found ya' now I won't let go
Refrain:

Everything you say, and everything you do
Is making me fall deeper in love with you
Everything you give, I can't believe it's true
I'm really falling deeper in love with you
Everything you say
And darling everything you do
I'm falling deeper in love
Here, this is my heart
Take care of it
Be gentle please
That is all I got
To give to you
Not more or less
I tell ya' baby
Refrain:

Everything you say, and everything you do
Is making me fall deeper in love with you
Everything you give, I can't believe it's true
I'm really falling deeper in love with you
