Luvcat

Little green girl in the corner
Watching, waiting for you to come over
And I know that I'm changing
And I know that I'm still the same
I know I've been alienated
But honestly, it's underrated

Floating in the moonlight
Got the stars in my eyes
Falling through velvet skies
It's one of a kind
Started feeling strange again
Stood amongst the sapiens
Tried to be the same as them
But I'm an alien

Dancing on the ceilings
Swinging from chandeliers
When morning comes creeping
It all disappears
And I know that I'm changing
And I know, I know that I'm still the same
I've been high with my friends in high places
But honestly, it's overrated

Floating in the moonlight
Got the stars in my eyes
Falling through velvet skies
It's one of a kind
Started feeling strange again
Stood amongst the sapiens
Tried to be the same as them
But I'm an alien

Beam me up
To the black and night above
Beam me up
Want to kiss, want to fall in love
Beam me up
Say the stuff I've been dreaming of
"You always have been one of us"
Little green girl
In your own world

Floating in the moonlight
Got the stars in my eyes
Falling through velvet skies
It's one of a kind
Started feeling strange again
Stood amongst the sapiens
Tried to be the same as them
But I'm an, I'm an alien

I'm an, I'm an alien
I'm an, I'm an alien
