

Apologize

LVNDSCAPE

All that we know is dark and dust
Turn your head up, you know we must
And all we can see is blurry now
Who'll save us now, apologize, apologize

Yo, I'm sorry for only tellin' you sorry
Knowin' that sorry isn't enough
Gettin' blinded by the limelight
Hopin' we never lose, outta touch
I'm worried I'll never see you again
I left and ran away with the wind
Why does everybody wanna start now
When every story gotta have an end
I don't wanna see my deepest fear
Knowin' that you gotta leave and disappear
All these feelings got me trippin' now
Please just, please just make it clear
I close my eyes and see your face
I told you once, don't need no space
We got time until the time is wasted
Go ahead and run but there's no escape, damn

All that we know is dark and dust
Turn your head up, you know we must
And all we can see is blurry now
Who'll save us now, apologize, apologize
Who'll save us now, apologize, apologize
Who'll save us now, apologize, apologize

Yo, yo, apologize for everything that I did
Everything that I was, memories that I missed
Told you I'd never leave but sadly I went and switched Feelin' like fallin' in love really do not exist
I lost you, baby you lost me
I'm way too cocky and it's killin' me softly
Stuck in the fast lane, wishin' that somebody would stop me
Without you my world is rocky
Who do I go to, where do I go to now
How could you hear me when I'm ten foot down
You're makin' a sound, I hear your voice
I would've stayed if you gave me a choice
But what's a war if you ain't ready to fight
How could I see when I gave you the light
That's what I get for tryna make things right
And now I'm doin' twenty-five and life, damn

All we know is dark and dust
Turn your head up, you know we must
And all we can see is blurry now
Apologize

All that we know is dark and dust
Turn your head up, you know we must
And all we can see is blurry now
Who'll save us now, apologize, apologize
Who'll save us now, apologize, apologize
Who'll save us now, apologize, apologize
