

Hanging On

LVNDSCAPE

We were sleeping on the bedroom floor
Of your friend's house
Thinkin' we don't need no more
Never felt so alive, oh alive yeah
It was all about you-oooh ooh-oooh-oooh

Don't you remember the way that we were
When nothin' else mattered and I put you first
You say that you need me and that makes it worse
'Cause I'm second guessin' every single word

Am I hanging on love too long
I feel you slippin' through my fingers
Would you tell me if the feeling's gone
Or am I hanging on love too long

Am I hanging on love too long
You got me drownin' in the distance
Would you tell me if the feeling's gone
Or am I hanging on love too long

Am I hanging on love

We never cared about nobody else
And never overthought
The jealousy we always felt
But I guess that we who we are
And it's true-oooh ooh-oooh-oooh

Though we're different people at different times
And I can't do anything to change your mind
You say that you want me and that makes it worse
'Cause I'm second guessin' every single word

Am I hanging on love too long
I feel you slippin' through my fingers
Would you tell me if the feeling's gone
Or am I hanging on love too long

Am I hanging on love too long
You got me drownin' in the distance
Would you tell me if the feeling's gone
Or am I hanging on love too long

Am I hanging on love

Hanging on
Hanging on, love too long
Hanging on
Hanging on, love too long

Though we're different people at different times
And I can't do anything to change your mind
You say that you want me and that makes it worse
'Cause I'm second guessin' every single word

Am I hanging on love too long

I feel you slippin' through my fingers
Would you tell me if the feeling's gone
Or am I hanging on love too long

Am I hanging on love too long
You got me drownin' in the distance
Would you tell me if the feeling's gone
Or am I hanging on love too long

Am I hanging on love too long

Am I hanging on love too long
You got me drownin' in the distance
Would you tell me if the feeling's gone
Or am I hanging on love too long
Love too long

Hanging on
Hanging on, love too long
Hanging on
Hanging on, love too long
