

No One Nobody

LVNDSCAPE

I, saw you on the sidewalk
Thought that you were long-gone
I, wanna skip the small talk
Ready for some real talk
You, told me to come over
Cryin' on my shoulder
I, wanna know what went wrong

You had my hung up on you
You had me fallin' deep
You got me wishin' that I
Never let you leave
Was so caught up in sorrow
Had me caught up in pain
But now I know I see
The sunlight in the rain

I don't want no one, nobody
I don't want no one but you
I don't wanna meet somebody
If that somebody's not you
You can tell the world I'm ready
You can tell them that it's true
Tell the others that I'm sorry
I can't enough of you

If that somebody's not you
If that somebody's not you

Now my, feelings they were so strong
Thought that they were long gone
I, know we could be perfect
Maybe we can work it
Out and get back to what we had
I know this time we can make it last
Yeah, make it like the last time

You had my hung up on you
You had me fallin' deep
You got me wishin' that I
Never let you leave

I don't want no one, nobody
I don't want no one but you
I don't wanna meet somebody
If that somebody's not you
You can tell the world I'm ready
You can tell them that it's true
Tell the others that I'm sorry
I can't enough of you
I can't enough of you

If that somebody's not you
If that somebody's not you

I don't want no one, nobody

I don't want no one but you
If that somebody's not you
You can tell the world I'm ready
You can tell them that it's true
Tell the others that I'm sorry
