

What Would You Do

LVNDSCAPE

Come hear me out, it may seem out of the blue
I'm up and down, just tell me what will you do
If I tell you now, I think I'm falling for you
For you, for you

All these nights on the run, hungry for love
Got me daydreaming
And I try to deny, bottled it up
Inside I'm screaming
And I want you to know, want you to know
I think I'm falling for you
For you, for you

Would you hear me when I'm calling
Would you stay when I'm in need
Would you carry me along if I stopped walking
Would you do it all for me
When my heart begins to darken
If I fail to tame the sea
Would you carry me along if I stopped walking
Would you do it all for me

When I'm calling
Would you, would you
Carry me along
Would you do it all for me

Somewhere, somehow, I think I knew that you knew
Too many signs, so how could this not be true
If I tell you now, I think I'm falling for you
For you, for you

Would you hear me when I'm calling
Would you stay when I'm in need
Would you carry me along if I stopped walking
Would you do it all for me
When my heart begins to darken
If I fail to tame the sea
Would you carry me along if I stopped walking
Would you do it all for me

When I'm calling
Would you, would you
Carry me along
Would you do it all for me

When I'm calling
Would you, would you
Carry me along

All these nights on the run, hungry for love
I try to deny, bottled it up
And I want you to know, want you to know
I think I'm falling for you
For you, for you

Would you hear me when I'm calling
Would you stay when I'm in need
Would you carry me along if I stopped walking
Would you do it all for me
When my heart begins to darken
Would you carry me along if I stopped walking
