

Do You Remember

Lydia

You pressed right up against my lungs
So you, you whispered to me, "Let's just go."
Cause, yeah I got bags, and bags, and bags of summer time love
Yeah, I got bags, and bags, and bags if you want to come

Yeah I remember just laughing my ass off with you next to me
Do you remember jumping the fence, yeah from the police?
So here we go, ahhh-uhhh-uhhha
Do you remember?
ahhh-uhhh-uhhha
Do you remember

When you took off all of your clothes
You said, "I wish I lived in '64"
Yeah, where we would live, and live, and live, live it this way
You're gonna love, love, every breath you take

Yeah, I remember laughing my ass off when you're next to me
Do you remember jumping the fence, yeah from the police? (Yeah)
So here we go, ahhh-uhhh-uhhha
Do you remember?
ahhh-uhhh-uhhha
Do you remember?

Yeah, all of the dirt roads and the bad jokes, and Burning up our clothes, buyin' new phones, and You told me I was living free in my fucked up dream, and yeah, I was climbing up those trees in my ripped up jeans, and

Laughing my ass off when you're next to me
(you're next to me)
Do you remember jumping the fence, yeah from the police?
(yeah from the police)
So here we go, ahhh-uhhh-uhhha
Do you remember?
ahhh-uhhh-uhhha
Do you remember?

All on the dirt roads and the bad jokes, and Burning up our clothes, buying new phones.
