Lydia

And got a couple dollars in your pocket it's six o'clock in the morning well, you remember what you're talking? well alright, no problem (yeah) when it goes flying on by (yeah) I remember back when I - when I had dropped you off my mind wouldn't let 'em go back when we were trying to find somewhere we could rest our bones back when I was seeing no hope yeah, i've been laying low whatever kept me up those nights, I'll never know yeah, it's how it goes I don't want no stories coming at me like you always you've been looking kind of lonely well alright, I'm sorry (yeah) moving all around in my mind (yeah) and back when I, yeah back when I - when I had dropped you off my mind wouldn't let 'em go
back when we were trying to find somewhere
we could rest our bones
this is how it goes (What time is it?
It's a little after six.
After six? Oh, I missed my bus again.
Oh, what's one more day?
Nothing to you.
You know, I've got a funny feeling I'm going around and around.
Maybe I'm on a merry-go-round.
Climb on down.)
When I had dropped you off my mind
wouldn't let 'em go
back when we were trying to find somewhere
this is how it goes
when I had dropped you off my mind
wouldn't let 'em go
back when we were trying to find somewhere
yea, that's how it goes
