

I Still Believe

Lyfe Jennings

I still believe in Sunday dinners and giving thanks before you eat.

I still believe in breastfeeding babies, looking both ways before you cross the street.

I still believe in taking care of grandma not sending her to no damn nursing home yea, and

I still believe in whooping kids cause sometimes that's the only way that they gon' get it.

And I still believe in miracles.

I still believe in magic and rainbows.

Still believe in family, the laws of gravity, and where there's a will there's a way.

I still believe in santa clause, no not the man, I believe in the principle of giving back to community, rebuilding family, make this world a better place, I still believe.

I still believe in church on Sunday and praying 'fore you go to sleep.

I still believe in teaching by example cause kids mimick what they see.

I still believe in homeschool, washing your hands after you go to the bathroom yea.

And I still believe that prayer changes things, it's something about giving all your needs.

And I still believe in miracles.

Still believe in magic and rainbows.

Still believe in family, the laws of gravity, and where there's a will there's a way.

And I still believe in santa clause, no not the man, I believe in the principle of giving back to community, rebuilding family, make this world a better place, I still believe.

One heart, one soul, one voice, one people united together (I still believe)

One life, one love, one world, cause nobody lives forever (nobody lives forever)

We know it get better and better, and I know that we will so I raise my voice cause I still believe yea yea yea

I still (I still) believe (believe) in you (in you) in me (in me) in us (in us) in trust (in trust) in life (in life) in love (in love) I still (I still)
