

Midnight Shining

Lykke Li

I have burned simply
In a soft fire
I felt nothing, nothing
I felt nothing
I've had my chance but never filled
Played with fire for the thrill
I felt nothing, nothing
I felt nothing

Oh, I've been lost
Sad about you
Down, down
Beaten blue

Can't keep on running, darling
Can't be your shadow falling
Can't keep on crying over you
Last time I will come running
Can't be your midnight shining
Last time I'm dying over you

Cast away and silently
You burn your ship up in my beach
And I'm drowning
Baby I feel nothing

I loved you blind
But now I see
The hurt and calm
Went over me

Can't keep on running, darling
Can't be your shadow falling
Can't keep on crying over you
Last time I will come running
Can't be your midnight shining
Last time I'm dying over you
