

back up plan

Lyn Lapid

I haven't felt this way since
I switched schools in 9th grade
Yeah, everyone knows everyone but me
I'll try to reconnect
But you can't make new old friends
And everyone has someone but me

It sucks to say that nothing's changed
Alone, it's just a difference place
So, yeah, I'll take whatever I can get

So you can keep me in your pocket
I'm cool with standing by
You can say that I'm all yours if
A part of you is mine
If my option's this or nothing
Then I know where I stand
You can be what keeps me coming back
And I'll be your back-up plan

I'll be the one you run to
But only when you want to Long as I'm still within your reach
Will I always be
Low priority?
Right there where it's convenient
At least it means I'm needed

It sucks to say that nothing's changed
Alone, it's just a difference place
So, yeah, I'll take whatever I can get

So you can keep me in your pocket
I'm cool with standing by
You can say that I'm all yours if
A part of you is mine
If my option's this or nothing
Then I know where I stand
You can be what keeps me coming back
I'll be your back-up plan

You're worthy in heaven's eyes
And you bring every room to life
And I'm here standing out of sight and mind
And I'll do my best to ignore
That I'll sink to the ocean floor
Until you bring me back to shore

You can keep me in your pocket
I'm cool with standing by
You can say that I'm all yours if
A part of you is mine
If my option's this or nothing
Then I know where I stand
You can be what keeps me coming back
And I'll be your back-up plan
