What's it like to know
The words in your mouth right 'fore you say them?
I wanna know
What it's like to waste
Time on your couch
Stare at the ceiling

If it's alright, we can go
From late night
Till sunrise
You're on my mind
I just wanna be

Close
Closer than the buttons on your clothes
Can I be the melody you know?
Stay on replay in your head
What am I supposed to do
To get close to you?

What's it like to be the shirt on your back?
What's it like to be the pink to your black?
A hinge on your door, a date on your tour
'Cause I'd like to be a pin on your map

From late night
Until sunrise
You're on my mind
And I just wanna be

Close
Closer than the buttons on your clothes
Can I be the melody you know?
Stay on replay in your head
What am I supposed to do
To get close to you?

I just wanna be close
Closer than the buttons on your clothes
Can I be the melody you know?
Stay on replay in your head
What am I supposed to do
To get close to you?
