Hang on, what's this
Game you're playing?
Gotta admit
You're good at getting
Under my skin
Congratulations, all you've won is my indifference

Oh
If you think I'm losing sleep
And hoping I'm what you need
You might be surprised that I don't, I won't

Wonder who am I to you
'Cause if you're not mine, you're a waste of my time
I'd rather be spending my energy on somebody
Who isn't confused
I'm not clawing you out to be cast as your lover
And honestly I'm not getting, getting any younger

Go on ahead
Try and hurt my feelings
You're doing nothing
And truthfully it's Embarrassing
I hate to say that all you've won is my indifference

Oh
If you think I'm losing sleep
And hoping I'm what you need
You might be surprised that I don't, I won't

Wonder who am I to you
'Cause if you're not mine, you're a waste of my time
I'd rather be spending my energy on somebody
Who isn't confused
I'm not clawing you out to be cast as your lover
And honestly I'm getting not any younger
