

Babylon

Lynch Mob

So you think that you're now in control
But I know you better than anyone
Everyday that you paint in red
Won't come back and I will not forget

The spirit that hides
The cruelty of your lies
How I won't live and die
By the words that you hide

Babylon
Pictures of insanity
I can see but I can't believe
Babylon

The memories of things
That you once said
Take down the world
That you made us live
Everything that we
Are going through
Lost all heart like we always do

The spirit that hides
The cruelty of your lies
How I won't live and die
By the words that you can hide

Babylon
Pictures of insanity
I can see but I can't believe
Babylon

Is this the same old story
I know just how it ends
And your time is up again

Babylon
Pictures of insanity
I can see but I can't believe
Babylon
Wings they burn
Promises are lies
Bleeding heart falling from the sky
Babylon

Let it die
