

Caught Up

Lynch Mob

The heart of your salvation
Dance with demons every night
When it's cold and it's dark
You take out your heart
And let your soul leave sight

I asked you girl what do you want from me
I don't know what you need
You cry till the end
And you do it again
You live your life and deceive

You pray through your lines
You live and you die
Once a part of me
You've been brought to your knees

You're caught up in your lies
And your world don't treat you right
You break, you bleed and you won't take me, no

Your times of desperation
And you're empty in your eyes
You're falling apart
Never know who you are
What's going on inside

I asked you girl but you turned away
I suffer and I bleed
I tried to pretend
And do it again
You're so gone I cannot see you

Now you beg every night
And I'm saying goodbye
Once a part of me
Now I can't believe

You're caught up in your lies
And your world don't treat you right
You break, you bleed and you won't take me, no
You're caught up in your lies

I tried to save you, girl
But I know this won't be right

The heart of your salvation
Dance with demons every night

You're caught up in your lies
And your world don't treat you right
You break, you bleed and you won't take me
You're caught up in your
You're caught up in your lies
And your world don't treat you right
You break, you bleed and you won't take me
You're caught up in your lies

Up in your lies
Treat you right
You're caught up in your lies
Caught up in your lies
Caught up in your lies
