

Fire Master

Lynch Mob

Freedom desire
Freedom brings me higher

I hear them calling my name
My blood is boiling again
Unchained

Fire burning higher
Fire blows away

Passion ignited
Passion can't fight it

You're times of desperation
And your empty in your eyes
You're falling apart
Never know who you are
What's going on inside

I asked you girl
But turned you away
The suffering the blame
I tried to pretend
And you do it again
Your so gone you cannot see

Now you beg every night
And I'm saying goodbye
Once a part of me
Now I can't believe

You're caught up
In your lies
And your world
Don't treat you right
You break , You bleed
And won't take me
You're caught up with your lies

I hear them calling my name
My blood is boiling again
Unchained

Fire burning higher
Fire blows away

The thought lives inside my mind
The future left behind
The spirit that burns the soul
It lured me and takes a hold

I hear them calling my name
My blood is boiling again
Unchained

Fire burning higher
Fire blows away

I tried to save you girl
But I know this won't be right

The heart of your salvation
Dance with demons every night

You're caught up
In your lies
Don't treat you right
And won't take me
You're caught up in your

Your caught up
In your lies
Don't treat you right
You're caught up in your lies
