

Let it Go

Lynch Mob

Something wicked now surrounds me
A thousand souls that won't let me be
Riding on an endless road
Waiting for the night to explode

It'll never change
Hard to feel the shame
Gotta jump and shout
And let it go

Flying on an empty feeling
Feel the heat I wake up screaming
Raising hell and always dreaming
Reaching for the heavens not believing

It'll never change
Gotta feel the pain
Gotta let it out
And let it go

Never changes
Endless road

Something wicked now surrounds me
A thousand souls that won't let me be
Raising hell and always dreaming
Reaching for the heavens not believing

It'll never change
Gotta feel the pain
Gotta let it out
And let it go
It'll never change
Hard to feel the shame
Gotta jump and shout
And let it go
