

Relax

Lynch Mob

Ooh

Take a look around at my surroundings
Lost and found things get so desperate
I wanna be right next to you
When I'm feelin' down, all that I have to do
Is think of you and what I'm missin' in my lonely room

So don't you cry your eyes
I will be the man that you want me to be
And, baby, understand
I will be there when you call on me

Oh, girl, you ask me why I look so high, you wonder why
I say it's all because I'm overdosed on you
Oh, you can make me do the things I do, what I'd go through
You turn the screw that keeps me wanting more of you

So don't you cry your eyes
I will be the man that you want me to be
And, baby, understand (Understand)
I will be there when you call on me

Oh, girl, you ask me why I look so high, you wonder why
I say it's all because I'm overdosed on you
Oh, you can make me do the things I do, what I'd go through
You turn the screw that keeps me wanting more of you

So don't you cry your eyes
I will be the man that you want me to be
And, baby, understand (Understand)
I will be there when you call on me

La-la, la-la
La-la, la-la-la, la-la
La-la, la-la

So don't you cry your eyes (Cry your eyes)
I will be the man that you want me to be (Want me to be)
And, baby, understand (Understand)
I will be there when you call on me (You call on me)
So don't you cry your eyes (Cry your eyes)
I will be the man that you want me to be (Want me to be)
And, baby, understand (Understand)
I will be there
