

The Ledge

Lynch Mob

Gotta get away
I've been feelin' tired and lonely
My Patience reached the end
I don't care anymore

Gotta go away
I can't stand this any longer
I've given all I can give
Now I'm torn and frayed

Make me believe in yesterday
That nothing can tear us apart
Make me believe this all will change
Before we bleed from the heart
Make me believe that you found a way
To walk on and never be afraid
Can I believe in your words today
Or will I have to see that your sorrow will never end

Am I gonna have to walk you off the ledge tonight
(Still)
Can I do it once again and drown those tears you cried
Am I gonna have to be the one who leaves tonight
(Still)
Or will we fall in love once again

There's nothing left to say
I can't feel you any longer
The mist of the dawn has taken the sun away
Ohhh, if I can find my way
In your eyes I'd be the only
To follow you over the ocean
To the better way

Make me believe in yesterday
That nothing can tear us apart
Make me believe this all will change
Before we bleed from the heart
Make me believe that you found a way
To walk on and never be afraid
Can I believe in your words today
Or will I have to see that your sorrow will never end

Am I gonna have to walk you off the ledge tonight
(Still)
Can I do it once again and drown those tears you cried
Am I gonna have to be the one who leaves tonight
(Still)
Or will we fall in love once again

Make me believe in yesterday
That nothing can tear us apart
Make me believe this all will change
Before we bleed from the heart

Am I gonna have to walk you off the ledge tonight
(Still)

Can I do it once again and drown those tears you cried
Am I gonna have to be the one who leaves tonight
(Still)
Or will we fall in love once again

Before we bleed once again
Before we bleed from the heart, from the heart
Before we bleed again
