

MERCILESS

lynch.

standing here I'm on a cliff edge heading straight to the blackest hole seen many friends are gone
I could be the next one to fall
but I am ready to go

I know it from long ago

the stream of time is so merciless today's winner will lose tomorrow but we don't have to be afraid of it victory must be on its way believing yourself let you to survive nothing else helps your life at all keep your eyes on tomorrow you can't find future in the past

seen many friends are gone
I could be the next one to fall
but I am ready to go
