I'm lonely and I'm looking for a husband like I do every Friday at this time

A frisky thinking whiskey drinking husband I'm looking for a husband and he's mine

If there's a tavern in the town then that's where I'll look for my man

It's a payday and he's nowhere to be found so I'm husband hunti ng again

All week long he's good as gold and then some a really sweet an d family loving guy

When payday comes he's high and wide and handsome He's high and wild and handsome mostly high If there's a tavern in the town...

I'm looking for a husband who is faithful who's used to working hard for every cent

I'm looking for him and I'd sure be grateful to get to him befo re he drinks the rent

If there's a tavern in the town...

If there's a tavern in the town...