

Act a Fool

Lyrica Anderson

Time flies when you havin' fun
That's what they told me
So you must've caught a few flights
At the rate you're going
I promise I ain't tryna pick fights
I'm just telling you what I know, know

Got a million niggas hollerin' everyday
And pussy gettin' thrown my way
But I decline
Now I don't wanna hear you say how hard it is to fight temptation
Now I don't wanna hear how bad it hurts when I go pull a you on you
Funny thing about these fucking tables is they turn, they always do

So if you wanna act a fool
Baby, I can act up too
Heard you out here breaking rules
Playing games I can't lose
Oh, you think you got that juice
Better know I got that too
Anything you can do
Better know I can too

So if you wanna act a fool
Baby, I can act up too
Heard you out here breaking rules
Playing games I can't lose

Yeah yeah

Think I won't do you dirty (aye)
You must not really know me (yea)
That melanin keep 'em on me (yea)
Shooting shots like they Kobe (yea)
Got a bad girl, your Rihanna
I shouldn't even have to remind ya
Gave you the ball you dropped it
That's not my fault I'm sorry

Got a million niggas hollerin' everyday
And pussy gettin' thrown my way
But I decline
Now I don't wanna hear you say how hard it is to fight temptation
Now I don't wanna hear how bad it hurts when I go pull a you on you
Funny thing about these fucking tables is they turn, they always do

So if you wanna act a fool
Baby, I can act up too
Heard you out here breaking rules
Playing games I can't lose
Oh, you think you got that juice
Better know I got that too
Anything you can do
Better know I can too

So if you wanna act a fool
Baby, I can act up too

Heard you out here breaking rules
Playing games I can't lose
I can't lose
