

Dangerous

Lyrical Anderson

If you give me your permission just step in and lock the door
Conversations lead to fuckin', bra and panties on the floor
If I take you out the country tell me baby you're on board
I just wanna know can you handle, I don't really mind

Little bit of camera action, that's when I start to get ratchet
Smoking California, smoking California
You already know I'm a savage, keep a couple girls at the palace
Wake up in the mornin', you know I ain't perfect but I want ya'

I want ya' to love me, love me
I want ya' to love me, but this love is dangerous
I want ya' to love me, love me
I want ya' to love me, but this love is dangerous

When I give you all them kisses you can't help but beg for more
Have you screamin' new positions, more submissive than before

If I take you out the country tell me baby you're on board
I just wanna know (Wanna know)
Can you handle I don't really mind
(I don't really)

Little bit of camera action, that's when I start to get ratchet
Smoking California, smoking California
You already know I'm a savage, keep a couple girls at the palace
Wake up in the mornin', you know I ain't perfect but I want ya'

I want ya' to love me, love me
I want ya' to love me, but this love is dangerous
(This love is dangerous)
I want ya' to love me, love me
I want ya' to love me, but this love is dangerous

Boy don't let me go unnoticed
Don't believe all that you heard
Boy I know that my love drives you crazy
Boy you know

I want ya' to love me, love me
(I want you to love me)
I want ya' to love me, but this love is dangerous
I want ya' to love me, love me
I want ya' to love me, but this love is dangerous

I want ya' to love me, love me
(I want you to love me)
I want ya' to love me, but this love is dangerous
I want ya' to love me, love me
(I want you to love me)
I want ya' to love me, but this love is dangerous
