

Everytime

Lyrica Anderson

Tell me do I ever really cross your mind?
Tell me do I ever really cross your mind?
Can't forget that I'm the one that loved you right
Got you on the front row, court side
You ain't gotta act like, act like
I was never good to you
You ain't gotta flex and lie
I never did what you wanted me to

I'm coming back every time
For what's mine
Promise I'ma put my name on it
Gotta put a claim on it
I'm coming back, I'm coming back every time
For what's mine
Promise I'ma put my name on it
Gotta put a claim on it

Tell me do I ever really cross your mind?
Tell me do I ever really cross your mind?
Can't forget that I'm the one that loved you right
Got you on the front row, court side
You ain't gotta act like, act like
I was never good to you
You ain't gotta flex and lie
I never did what you wanted me to

I'm coming back every time
For what's mine
Promise I'ma put my name on it
Gotta put a claim on it
I'm coming back, I'm coming back every time
For what's mine
Promise I'ma put my name on it
Gotta put a claim on it

You know I'm coming back
Like Tom Brady in the fourth quarter, I'm coming back
Just like Tom Brady in the fourth quarter, I'm coming back
You know when I pull up on you, you don't know how to act, yeah
Yeah, I'm all in
Can we it after hours
Yeah, pretty problems, gotta solve 'em
But we argue and shit, baby
I don't wanna call it quits
I don't wanna burn a bridge
Yeah, got me caught up in my feelings
I know you feel it, woah, yeah

I'm coming back every time
For what's mine
Promise I'ma put my name on it
Gotta put a claim on it
I'm coming back, I'm coming back every time
For what's mine
Promise I'ma put my name on it
Gotta put a claim on it
