

They Gon Lie

Lyrical Anderson

Don't listen to none of these niggas know they jus gonna lie
Don't listen to them when they say that your should ride or die
Say they love you just to fuck you then say goodbye
Just don't believe these hoes

Nigga sold me a dream
Said he buy me a Range Rove
Just to get in my jeans
But he never even came close
Do the most to get some
But you ain't gonna get none
You changed your name cause you never been A1

Do you even listen to yourself
I know that you don't believe that bullshit
I know that your mom ain't raised you well
And that's why I won't and don't

Don't listen to none of these niggas know they jus gonna lie
Don't listen to them when they say that your should ride or die
Say they love you just to fuck you then say goodbye
Just don't believe these hoes

Don't listen to the game they spitting anytime they talk
Don't you believe these niggas after they get what they want
They think that after cheating they can buy you to saint Laurent
Just don't believe these hoes

If you can't get his code
Girl you know that he hiding something up in that phone
How is Pizza Hut replying (tell me that)
What you selling we ain't buying
Try ya momma not me please

Do you even listen to yourself
I know that you don't believe that bullshit
I know that your mom ain't raised you well
And that's why I won't and don't

Don't listen to none of these niggas no they just gone lie
Don't listen to them when they say you should ride or die
Say they love you just to fuck you then they say goodbye
Just don't believe these hoes

Don't listen to the game they spitting anytime they talk
Don't you believe these niggas after they get what they want
They think that after cheating they can give you to saint Laurent
Just don't believe
