

When I Needed You

Lyrica Anderson

You don't even feel guilty
When you needed to feel guilty
To busy like your pride is in the way
You don't even want to say sorry
Wanna sound and say sorry
To busy tryna flip it all on me

What happened to the man I used to know
Not your typical
Always with your boys chasin hoes
And my feelings tho
What happened...?
You were supposed to be the one
That I take home to meet my parents

Where were you?
When I needed you
I needed you
Where were you?
When I needed you, Whooo
Look at you
Boy look at you
I can't look at you
So ugly
I'm through with you, Whoo

Who cooked you dinner?
Who always made you feel like you're a winner
You're such a guy, you ain't shit but a cheater
I should believe your friends, when they said that you ain't shit

I think I learn my lesson it's hard to give my all
You say I'm what you need, but still that ain't enough
All I ever needed was for you to be one hundred
Now I'm sitting here thinking

Where were you?
When I needed you (When I Needed You)
I needed you (I needed you)
Where were you? (Where were you baby?)
When I needed you, Whooo
Look at you
Boy look at you
I can't look at you
So ugly
I'm through with you, Whoo

I smoking cigarettes, and I don't even smoke cigarettes
I'm touching myself, when you should be right here touching myself
Thinking about your kisses, the way you put on me
Thinking about that first time you said you love, Oww
You said you love, You said you love me
Boy you don't love me
Whooo
