

Yeah

That's Chucks

Suffered by myself, I had my mind playin' games (Mind playin' games)
I put it on my mother, I send bullets to their face (Bullets to their face)
They keep pushin' the narrative that Huncho really changed
Fuck the olders, I'm the one that went against the grain

And I ask for one thing, give me privacy, some space (Space)
I just wanna tell you all my story and my pain (And my pain)
Surfin' this game, I put this mask upon my face (Mask upon my face)
Got on all this Louis but these scars under my flesh (Yeah)
Been through hell, took a toll on me, for real
I remembered who I am, for real
Drivin' 'round town and I'm grippin' on the steel (Grippin')

Put a thousand grands there for my brothers, uh
If we don't love each other, who gon' love us? Uh?
Rollin' with this strap, the grip is rubber, uh
Hope I don't get pulled by undercovers, no (No)
This is real life, not no gimmicks, uh
Four days in the trap, baggin' business, uh
Built my own label M.Y.B. (M.Y.B.)
'Cause all I ever do is mind my business, uh (Mind my business)

Fucked a thousand hoes and I didn't show them love
Thought I met the one and I gave her all my love
She knows that I'm troubled and she knows I had it rough (She knows I had it rough)
Goin' gets tough, I pour four ounces in the cup (Four ounces in the cup)
Think better when I'm drinkin' lean
"Two and a Half Men". Charlie Sheen
I'm still stuck in my misery
I blame all my wrongs on these streets, oh (On these streets, oh)
