

Yeah

Shit ain't been the same ('Lin)

Shit ain't been the same (yee)

Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same ('Lin)

Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same (huuh)

Take me to the Six, nothing was the same

Find a happy place, I ain't used to change

Make a little change, fly across the world

Skiing in the Alps, putting on the pounds

Challenges I face

Smoke one to the face, I don't have no face, 'til she give me face

If it isn't money, I don't wanna say, if it isn't cash I don't wanna speak

Brabus that I drive, tearing up the streets

There's no touching style lil boy, made some plans when I was a lil boy

Put 120 on the neck lil boy, I didn't have shit when I was a lil boy

Lil boy

Yea, going through shit I'm still smiling, counting this money is tiring [?] on my tyres

I don't listen to gossip and liars

Love the view and I hit from behind

Life is good when it's us and you're mine

And it matches for me and the guys

Shit ain't been the same

Shit ain't been the same, shit ain't been the same

Ever since the cash, shit ain't been the same, looking at my friends and some of them have changed

But they look at me and telling me the same, this shit ain't the same (this shit ain't the same I swear)

This shit really changed

Shit done really changed

This shit ain't the same

Break the curse, live and learn, had to really wait my turn

Every step that I took, had to really know my worth

Bullets fly, people die, is it really all in vain?

G-Wag for the off days, and we'll look back one day

Top off in the rain, with a baddie I can't really name drop

Only thing that kept me sane was getting money and I really won't stop

Can't stop, really won't, lil one growing, shits changed can't you see?

Ain't it obvious? Ain't it obvious?

Shit ain't been the same

Shit ain't been the same, Shit ain't been the same

Anaya's getting big, hear her call my name

She don't even know Baba's on the stage

Tryna keep it 'lidge, Huncho hall of fame

This shit really changed

Hope I stay the same

Time will only tell

Rose gold on the face
