

Paid = Sane

M Huncho

How do you expect me to get paid?
I treat the music like drugs and the bando is my stage
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
Yee

How do you expect me to get paid?
I treat the music like drugs and the bando is my stage
How do you expect me to keep saying?
When they all up in my business I want money not the fame
(Fame) I want money not the fame
How do you expect me to keep saying?
When they wanna take my life and freedom away
How do you expect me to keep saying?
How do you expect me to keep saying?
When I can't even be myself without you feeling a way
How do you expect me to keep saying?

When I see shots ricochet
Smoke about a zip a day
Chilling in the kitchen cooking cocaine fricassée
You the type to rap it, never see you participate
All I know is innovate, all they do is imitate
All I wanna do is see some smiles on my sisters' faces
Do a lot more miles and see a million places
If you felt a way then how come you ain't ever say shit?
Remember when you said you wrote me but you didn't mail it?
I can't be going back and forth with you, this shit is draining
Everybody speaking on me, I'm a known pagan
I should let it go but violation's violation
And you're guilty by association
So if I see him, I'ma spin straight, criminally I'm insane
Ever since a little boy, this is what they been saying
Voices I can't think straight every single shit day
God knows I'm a good man learning through my mistakes

(Fame) I want money not the fame
How do you expect me to keep saying?
When they wanna take my life and freedom away
How do you expect me to keep saying?
(Fame) I want money not the fame
How do you expect me to keep saying?
When I can't even be myself without you feeling a way
How do you expect me to keep saying?

How do you expect to paid, got a 100 different ways
Need this money in a safe, I do
How do you expect me to get paid?
Gotta keep myself in check
Gotta get it anyway, I do
And I ran towards the check
Never felt so blessed
I don't feel no threats
Beef with me is rare
I've been going so fast
Brother told me slow down

I don't even know how
Treat it like a playground
This ain't even fun no more
3 hoes Santa Clause
I don't even want the hoe
Find peace when I'm alone
Used to call me Vince McMahon
I invested into raw
Preaching I was door to door

How do you expect me to keep saying?
When they wanna take my life and freedom away
How do you expect me to keep saying?
(Fame) I want money not the fame
How do you expect me to keep saying?
When I can't even be myself without you feeling a way
How do you expect me to keep saying?
