

Wondering

M.O

Yeah, M.O
Chip

When I come, when I come home later
I'm just hoping you'll be awake, yeah
When I come, when I come home later, ah oh ah
Yeah, I know, yeah, I know you're patient
I don't wanna test your patience
I ain't lookin' for a new replacement, ah oh ah

You say I'm on your mind
How come you don't make time, aah
You say I'm on your mind
But lately you showing me signs, aah

Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you go
Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you
Been here like a million times
Right now, you're on a decline
Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you go
(Where you go)
Wondering, wondering where you

Hittin' up my line, bad vibes when you text
I ain't with the stress, you got me hittin' up my ex
You ain't on my mind all the time, but you've been in my heart
You girl, you give me cardiac arrest
I ain't with the past and the fussing, the fighting
Sometimes people hear more in silence
You should be here right now with me vibin'
But you always on a hype ting
You be on WhatsApp saying that I'm giving you silence
I'm not the lollipop man, stop lying
I give you an inch but you wanna take a mile
It's not everyday, where was you last night?
She be Chippy, you take it too far
Asked where I was and I ran out of bars
For your loving, I was inclined
Now I'm on a decline
But it wasn't like this at the start

Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you go
Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you
Been here like a million times
Right now, you're on a decline
Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you go
Wondering, wondering where you
Wondering, wondering where you

I don't want no goner
So I'ma teach you proper

I don't want no drama
So I'ma teach you proper
I don't want no goner
So I'ma teach you proper
I don't want no drama
But lately you showing me signs

Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you go
Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you
Been here like a million times
Right now, you're on a decline
Wondering, wondering
Been wondering, wondering where you go
Wondering, wondering where you
Wondering, wondering where you
