All of the shit we be goin' through, it be stressing me out and I'm losing my focus
I gave you my heart just to hold it, but now It's in pieces right after you broke it
Like damn, you really folded when I first met you I ain't think you was bogus
I still be having your smell on my clothing, It's one of them songs and I'm having a moment
(What the fuck do you want?)
I want to just tell you bout' something I noticed
It was so much that I want to speak on but at the time I didn't know how to approach it
Why you ain't been make it known you was mentally done and you losing emotions
You be quick to keep everything blunt about us, I just thought that you was always outspoken
On your story you post about things not pertaining to us, I'm just keeping it noted
You been moved on whole time you been onto the next and I'm already knowing
I was thinking the bond that we had with eachother was real, why you ain't tell me you fell back?
(Yes I did)
Wrong nigga, got me mistaken now I'm wondering who did you tell that Cool, can't even lie put my pride to the side but my heart really felt that Now you just posted a pic with two plates at a table, where I know that you not by yourself at
I text from a text free like where you at? She tryna tell me that's none of my business
I'm trying to call but It's going to voicemail do not disturb, every call she dismissing
I'm reminiscing, we was happy together we was both wearing matching pajamas for Christmas
And we made a list, no gifts, love and affection the only thing that we was picking
Like, let me snap back to reality, I'm finally seeing this bitch really left me
I don't care who you dealing with, fucking or feeling with Deep down I know that you'll never forget me (Life lesson)
If you emotionally done with a person that's something you should be addressing
Next time just check me, It's the reason I stay to myself and my heart will forever be empty
