M Row

(Kayo)

(I think you broke my heart again)

(Please don't leave and take my hand)

(Jelly onnat)

(Drowning inside these walls of fear)

(Take my hand and stay with me my dear)

(I think you broke my heart again)

I'm not letting you break through my heart again

No take backs, I'm not tryna restart again

Don't call my phone, 'cause I'm not gon' respond again

Uh, I had to bring up my guard again, heart broke, I'm feeling scarred again

My back got stabbed way too many times, to the point I get stabbed in the same exact mark again

Rewind, wait, let me just start again

Let me fast forward to how it occurred with me

I was overplaying my part again and you never cared I was taking that personally

You sayin' it be accidental, but the way that you do shit to me a seem purposely

I'm at the point I don't care about you, my phone on DnD, don't call disturbin' me

Uh, I don't care it's emergency, call up that nigga you workin' it out with

I bought you a dress as a gift and you went to go see him outside in that same exact outfit

I was adding up signs, fuck that, I was roundin' it up figured out who you around with?

I saw his number come up in your phone and I put it in cache, right there and I found them

All I needed was that to confirm that the whole time you had me think I'm a lunatic

You make it seem all good to me, whole time behind my back you was doin' shit

I knew I was right, I'm not losin' it, everything right in my face and I'm viewin' it

And after I told you, "You caught up", I showed you the proof you said I'm confusing it

You could be in denial, I don't care, you knew me too long to not know I'm observant

When a person do shit you not used to them doin', you really could see it, but it's hard to just word it

I knew the outcome and been knew the verdict

I really was loyal and didn't deserve this

All of the pictures we had with each other, I'm throwing away matter fact, I'ma burn it

You hear the sound of that burning

All of my time went to waste, now I'm alone and I'm hurting
Every time when I think it's a go, park, stop, not it's reversi
n'
I'm making a U-turn, turnin'
The next girl that want on my trust gotta earn it

(I think you broke my heart again)
(Please don't leave and take my hand)
(Jelly onat)
(Drowning inside these walls of fear)
(Take my hand and stay with me my dear)
