Like, M Row, like
It's hard to see 'cause both of our schedules is busy You be to yourself 'cause I'm your only friend, so it never take long for yo u to miss me
You havin' flashbacks about everything we be doin' whenever you tipsy
When I don't answer the phone you be callin' my friends and be askin' "Like where the fuck is he?"
I just want you to understand me and my lifestyle, I be workin' too late, I make hits in the night now You be gettin' impatient, whenever I'm gone you be makin' it urgent to see y ou like right now You be blowin' my phone when I'm writtin' my lyrics, I'm losin' focus you ge ttin' me tight now

You be gettin' me hot when you changin' your mood, your feelings all over do n't know what to do When you mad you be sayin' some shit you don't mean, your anger just come fr om some shit you assume I go hours not answering you, to be honest the way I communicate needs to im prove Stop always thinkin' I'm up to no good 'cause I'm really a nigga that's keep in' it cool
I've been tryna make some time, I've been tryna make some time wit' you
The mood like everything fine but I know everything not fine wit' you
I know you be losin' your mind but you gettin' me mad so I'm losin' my mind wit' you Through thick or thin, you know I'm a ride, forever and ever you know I'm a ride wit' you
I just wanna say an apology 'cause a lot of this shit I ain't notice
I be arguin' about all the littlest shit that got bigger that's makin' me lo se my focus Like, it's a lot that you hold in, I be knowin' what's up and that's why I d on't go in I really hate all your friends, if you tell them you think about cheatin' th ey always promote it You wanna be hear 'cause you think I'm a die, you always just tellin' me tha t "I wanna die wit' you" I'm on the run and you know I'm a hide, she gon' be wit' me and said "I'm a hide wit' you"
Baby, I soon gotta slide, you not goin' no where, I don't care I'm a slide w it' you
When we leavin', I'm tellin' you bye, she said that she comin', I'm sayin' g oodbye wit' you

I don't wanna waste no time
Like, I don't wanna waste no time
