Like, I just hate when we have a dispute
When we argue I just go mute
When I'm done I explain how I'm feeling with you
No matter the things that we dealing with at the end I really love being with you
Let me just tell you my side of the story, I'ma explain it from my point of view
Like, I don't wanna lose you, why you making me pick you know I'ma choose you
I know that I'm toxic, sometimes I confuse you
You laughing at me and I know I amuse you
I'm not like your ex I don't wanna abuse you
You know I got motion, I don't needa use you
I'm not breaking your heart, I'm not tryna bruise you
I communicate with you, I never accuse you
