Whenever it's raining cry
I feel like it's tears from the sky coming all out Sometimes I be wanting to vent how I feel and just give you my heart while I'm pouring it all out I-I was just calling to see if you really at work, but you told me you called out Y-You do whatever you can just to go out your way to ignore me whenever we fall out I came by your job and I see you just there on your phone tryna get in the cab when you walk out Cracking the window to hear what you saying when you on the pho ne tryna scream, going all out Skirt, car pulling off
I-I press the gas now two cars back you I ain't wanna get right behind you, cause if you do see me you probably gon think I'm after you Shoot you a text like why is you mad?
You sent me a text like you know why I'm, mad at you I feel like she using some shit I ain't do just to go through a thing so she giving me attitude I sent you a text back guess that you blocked me, that shit did n't go through I'm still right behind you d-driving to see where you stop at I'm lurkin' To see where you going to But I know that it's something a little bit off I could really just tell you forget that I know you that I know you something deep down in my heart, in my gut tryna give me a sign Like, this bitch bout to show you C-car pulling over hazard light flicking
I see a nigga tryna walk to the cab, so I hop out pull up gun o n hip
And he asking "like bae who is that"?
I just look in her eyes, I'm like this is the reason you block me
You lying like you really mad
I never did shit, you sitting here tryna just make me feel wron g like I did something bad Fuck, I'm bout to crash she see in my face that I'm itching to blast
The nigga just ran when I upped it I know I'm on dumb shit I'm seeing my life really flash But I ain't shoot, I told her just leave me alone and fuck all that shit from the pass

I'm letting you be. like just know, just know that I'll never c ome back
