

Say Goodbye

M Row

Jelly on that

If you ever was a saga you know how sneaky a girl get Hey have a name of their friends is your contact so you won't k now when you searching And you think that it's nothing occurring
You can't find shit in that phone to confirm it And you know deep down something wrong
And you know you can't ask your line just merch it Say goodbye to that dumb shit, stop tryna normalize that you kn ow it's not working Stop pushing the gas at a stoplight with her cuz you need to U-turn or reverse it She can say she not perfect but worth it, but still be the bitc h that's leaving you hurting D-don't be oblivious to what you observe It don't matter if she ain't let them kill she was flirting wit h them
If you keep letting all this shit rock, she gon think that it's cool to take a kindness for weakness Tell a bitch you give them the world, and they still wouldn't c are
They want planets like Venus, Mars, Jupiter Don't be stupid a bitch be smart when they cheat like a genius And they like shit convenient for them and they benefits like i f not then they leave it Always know that's just something you want and don't need it But don't be all fucked up, cause you can replace them Like a lot of shit don't last forever, so enjoy who you got whe n you do entertain them When it come to bitches I ever took back I could promise I neve r forgot but forgave them But I always got back if you did me wrong first and I really ge t slimed when I played them Uh, I'm quick to go say goodbye, cause I don't got time for tha t real bad energy I'm not wasting my time on no bitch that's just temporary to me and gon be a memory Uh, most of my exs my enemies or they delusional bugging out me ntally
Cuz they know what they did is a penalty
They think I'm going to run with whatever they telling me

Keep me in rotation, M row
