

St. Thomas

M Row

(I love you Atake)

Uh, uh, uh

Let me say what I did in St. Thomas
You tryna tell me I never was honest
But you was the first one to break all the promises
I be thinking you smart cause you still go to college
When it come down to cheating, you don't got no knowledge
You did it first, so I did it right back, but you caught me
You went through my phone while I'm driving
You cheated first, so I did it right back
I don't know why you thought I was taking that lightly
We out of town while you reading my messages
While I'm driving, you still trying to fight me
You see how I feel to get hurt, what you thought
If I hit up a bitch that look good, she won't write me
You forgot all my exes still love me I promise
They'll do anything to just sit right beside me

Whipping the car while I'm driving, you crazy
You asked why I did it, I just can't express it
I feel like you did me more worse, you linked up with your ex
All you saw was some messages
I ain't link no bitch I was talkin' to
I promise that shit was for fun while I'm textin'
But you on the other hand, you linkin' your ex two times
And you answer his call, it's collected
Real shit, last bitch did me dirty
I started to go and just fuck all her friends
It ain't make me feel better, I was just feelin' stupid
I started to see all this shit made no sense
And I asked her right after you caught me, is you gonna go back cheating again?
You look me dead in my face, see you lie
Trying to say we gon' put all this shit to an end
Fast forward, weeks go by and you lie to me like you was up in the hospital
You was linking a nigga that you used to talk to
And none of your friends would just stop you
You even sent me a picture your sister had sent you to send me
When I started clocking you
When I went through your phone in the [?]
When I peeped through his line and I started bombing you
(Uh, uh, uh, I'm done)

Let me say what I did in St. Thomas
