

Confession

M. Ward

Anybody got a load that they need lifted?
Anybody got a pain in their heart?
There's a place you can hide
When they're conspiring against ya
Confession

Somebody and nobody can save the day
Somebody made love, it goes all the way
There's a place you can go
Where I know they'll never find ya
Confession

Confession, another mother lode
Confession, to a virgin ghost
Admission, of forces you know
Admission, of ones you don't

Anybody missed the train that left at the station?
Anybody lose a ticket stub or go home?
There's a place you can go
When you wander too far from home, yeah
Confession

Confession, of the mother lode
Confession, to a virgin ghost
Admission, of forces ya know
Admission, of ones you don't

Confession, of the mother lode
Confession, to a virgin ghost
Submission, you wanna get back home
Admission
You can't do it alone!

Confession
In a higher voice that lives
Confession
You don't know what it is
Admission
But you know it's true
Admit that
It don't come from you!

Yeah!
