

for good

M. Ward

She said she's happy that she found me
She wraps her arms around me
I'm thinking one more kiss like this
And that will be the one that drowns me for good
Hmm, for good

And a thriller for a day
A killer for a night
Hard to say goodbye
When you know that it's goodbye for good
For good
Hmm, yeah

She put her hand in mine
The other on her hip
Said, "If we gonna dance forever
I'ma show you how to dance like this"

And then one mile down
Two miles, three
Saw the deepest shade of blue ever a man did see

And it was goodbye
For goodbye
