

Right On Time

Mabel

You're not late (You're not late, you're not late, you're not late)

You're right on time

You're not late (Can't be, can't be, can't be)

No, you're right on time

Don't want you feelin' insecure

Baby, I'm a late bloomer

So know that you're not late (Not late)

Know you're right on time

Why I gotta overthink? Understand everything

Killing myself to be hourglass then paper thin, uh

Could you tell me when I started looking for myself in shady men? Oh

I'm seeing through a different lens, I gotta tell myself

You're not late

You're right on time

You're not late (You're not late, you're not late, you're not late)

You're right on time

You're not late (Can't be, can't be, can't be)

No, you're right on time

Don't want you feelin' insecure

Baby, I'm a late bloomer

So know that you're not late (Not late)

Know you're right on time

Hold your expectations (Hold your expectations)

'Cause some things are worth waiting for (Some things are worth waiting for, tell him again)

I don't want your expectations (I don't want your expectations)

They say when it rains it pours, but it'll be okay

You're not late (You're not late, you're not late, you're not late)

You're right on time

You're not late (Right on time)

No, you're right on time

Don't want you feelin' insecure

Baby, I'm a late bloomer

So know that you're not late, yeah (Not late)

Know you're right on time (And I'ma be on time)
