

Anymore

Mac Ayres

I guess I'm afraid
That I'll come back and just won't feel the same, same, same
Guess that I know (I know)
To put on my favorite face and enjoy the show, show
I guess it's starting to show
That my face is turning red from all the poison
In this cup is an ocean
Or an endless sea, think it's drowning me
Had the shallows on the edge of my feet
Now think I might've went too deep

She got me like
Ooo-ooo-ooo
Said this feeling wouldn't last forever
I guess that's true, ooo-ooo
Ooo-ooo-ooo
Said it wasn't even worth the mention
Still just something I go through
So sing it, just me and you

I finally don't, I finally don't
Feel a thing, not anymore
I finally don't, I finally don't
My skin's gone cold where the weather is warm (Where the weather is warm)
If crying every night just starts to get old (Oh!)
Said I just won't feel nothing anymore

I finally don't, I finally don't
Feel a thing, not anymore
I finally don't, I finally don't
My skin's gone cold where the weather is warm (Where the weather is warm)
If crying every night just starts to get old (Oh!)
Said I just won't feel nothing anymore

I guess it's 'bout time
To face my shadows trailing right behind me
I guess that I know now
It's the shadow that needed the sun to come out today
Just so he could stay

He wanna say
Ooo-ooo-ooo
Said this feeling wouldn't last forever
I guess that's true, ooo-ooo
Ooo-ooo-ooo
Said it wasn't even worth the mention
Still just something I go through
So sing it, just me and you

I finally don't, I finally don't
Feel a thing, not anymore
I finally don't, I finally don't
My skin's gone cold where the weather is warm (Where the weather is warm)
If crying every night just starts to get old (Oh!)
Said I just won't feel nothing anymore

I finally don't, I finally don't

Feel a thing, not anymore
I finally don't, I finally don't
My skin's gone cold where the weather is warm (Where the weather is warm)
If crying every night just starts to get old (Oh!)
Said I just won't feel nothing anymore
