

Change Ya Mind

Mac Ayres

Can't feel my fingers
Still feelin' you
Won't you come figure
Out what I could do
For you

Wait at the winter
To taste the spring
Want to discover
Everything

Oh it seems to me like we're just getting used to
But it feels like I've been waiting for so long
Oh it feels to me like all that you had heard to
Known it all along (oh)

Never tried to change ya
Didn't want to have to wake up
Never needed nothin' from ya
I never needed nothin' like I needed you

I'd like to show ya
Just how I feel
I'm just afraid of
Something this real
Something this real

Oh it seems to me like we're just getting used to
Oh it feels like I've been waiting for so long
Oh it feels to me like all that you had heard to,
Known it all along (oh, oh, yeah)

Never tried to change ya
Didn't want to have to wake up
Never needed nothin' from ya
I never needed nothin' like I needed you

Just tryin' to change ya mind
Without you on me
Just a little peace of mind
Never tried to change ya
